About This Game

VRRange - VR Close Quarter Battle and Zombie Horror simulator! Bring your worst nightmare to life with VRRange! Ready! yourself, Steady! your aim on the CQB training courses and Go! wild on the training ranges before you head out to face the zombie hordes!

Zombie Horde Mode

In Horde Mode, players pit their wits against ever growing hordes of the undead. Robert Bradley, a disgruntled weapons dealer is on hand to pay you for every rotter you dissect on the battlefield. Between each wave he'll give you access to the supply drop store where you can purchase weapons and ammunition to aid in your survival. How long will you last?

Training Ranges

VRRange sports a selection of themed shooting ranges, everything from a rotter testing lab to a desert military combat range. As VRRange develops we'll improve upon and increase our list of VRRange shooting ranges!

CQB Courses

Taking a break from blasting the dead apart? Why not try out the CQB courses, offering players the ability to compete against the world in a series of timed CQB environments. Clear the targets in the quickest time, avoid civilian casualties and compare your times and scores against the world leaderboards.
